

TRUSTWORTHINESS REDUX

Crucial Trial Techniques for Personal Injury Cases in New Jersey for Plaintiffs and Defense.

JAMES HELY, J.S.C

THE NEW JERSEY INSTITUTE FOR CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION

For over 50 years, the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education, a division of the NJSBA, has served the needs of the New Jersey bench and bar. From seminars and legal manuals to CLE on-demand videos and other educational tools, our products are designed to provide the latest strategies, expert advice and guidance to practitioners at every stage in their career.

Our success in providing the legal community with the highest quality educational products would not be possible without the countless attorneys, doctors, dignitaries and other legal experts who volunteer their efforts to serve as lecturers and authors. NJICLE is proud to be the conduit through which they share their knowledge, skills, and expertise with their fellow professionals.

About the Author

James Hely is a New Jersey Superior Court Judge in Union County. Before becoming a judge in 2009, he was a Supreme Court Certified Civil Trial Attorney and practiced law for 29 years. As an attorney, he tried more than 100 jury trials. As a judge, he has presided over more than 100 jury trials.

He wrote the book, Trustworthiness: A Trial Strategy Manual for Plaintiff's Injury Case in New Jersey. This manual was published by the New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education in 1998. He is also the author of the book, New Jersey Law of Personal Injury, which is updated annually.

Judge Hely serves as an Adjunct Professor of Law in trial advocacy at Rutgers Law School. For the last ten years, he has been a member of the New Jersey Supreme Court Rules of Evidence Committee.

He is a graduate of Westfield High School, Gettysburg College and Rutgers Law School. He has been married to his spouse, Lois, for forty-two years, and they have three grown children.

NJICLE would like to thank Judge Hely for his selfless donation of time and effort in writing this book. He does not receive any remuneration or royalties of any kind.
