

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

John H. Geaney, Esq. conducts a statewide practice involving workers' compensation, the Americans with Disabilities Act and the Family and Medical Leave Act. Mr. Geaney has practiced in workers' compensation since joining the law firm of Capehart Scatchard in 1982. He currently serves as Co-Chair of the firm's Workers' Compensation Group and served on the firm's Executive Committee from 2002 to 2020. He is past Chair of the Burlington County Bar Association's Workers' Compensation Section, a member of the New Jersey Self-Insurers' Association and a Fellow of the College of Workers' Compensation Lawyers of the American Bar Association. He is also active in the National Workers' Compensation Defense Network, and he is a founding Board Member of New Jersey PRIMA and a founding member of Kids Chance of New Jersey.

Mr. Geaney has written for various publications concerning workers' compensation and regularly makes presentations on workers' compensation, ADA and FMLA issues throughout the State. He is certified by the Supreme Court of New Jersey as a workers' compensation attorney. He is a graduate of Holy Cross College, summa cum laude, 1979, and a graduate of Boston College Law School, 1982. From 2005 to 2017, Mr. Geaney has been named a "Super Lawyer" in the area of Workers' Compensation as voted by his peers and facilitated by Law & Politics and New Jersey Monthly.¹

Mr. Geaney publishes a weekly blog titled New Jersey Workers' Comp Blog (<https://njworkerscompblog.com/>) which is distributed to thousands of readers throughout the country.

A native of Wayne, New Jersey, Mr. Geaney and his wife Michelle reside in Lower Makefield Township, Pennsylvania. They have three children. He may be reached at Capehart Scatchard at 856.914.2063, by fax at 856.439.3168 or by e-mail at jgeaney@capehart.com. His mailing address is: 8000 Midlantic Drive, Suite 300 S., Mt. Laurel, NJ 08054.

GEANEY'S 2023 MANUAL EDITION HIGHLIGHTS

The 2023 Manual is a compilation of prior editions with particular emphasis on cases decided from late 2020 through late 2022 as well as the addition of three new chapters and 42 new pages of text.

Some of the 2023 Edition highlights are as follows:

- ◆ New Chapter on Penalties in Workers' Compensation
- ◆ New Chapter on Presumptions Contained in the New Jersey Workers' Compensation Act
- ◆ New Chapter on Complex Issues in parking lot cases and the 2022 new parking lot law

Some of the new cases and regulations that are analyzed in detail in the 2023 Manual include:

- ◆ Update from CMS on Non-Submit Set Asides
- ◆ Summary of the 2021 Supplemental Benefits Law for surviving COVID dependents
- ◆ Hager v. M&K (key Supreme Court decision on employer's obligation to reimburse cost of medical marijuana)
- ◆ Ripp v. County of Hudson (penalties in workers' compensation)
- ◆ Keim v. Above All (authorized vehicle provision under N.J.S.A. 34:15-36)
- ◆ Alam v. Ameribuilt Contractors (conflicts of interest issues for defense counsel)
- ◆ Goulding v. Friendship House (Supreme Court decision on recreational activity claims)
- ◆ Ryan-Wirth v. Hoboken Board of Education (injury during exercise in school with students)
- ◆ Portillo v. National Freight (analysis of ABC test for independent contractors)
- ◆ Lapsley v. Twp. of Sparta (Supreme Court decision on shared parking lot injury)
- ◆ DiFiore v. Pezic (analysis of rules on recording IMEs and having observers in exams)
- ◆ Walker v. Saker Shop-Rite (analysis of injury in leased parking lot)
- ◆ Saiti v. Garden Homes (penalties in workers' compensation)
- ◆ Summary of new regulations on accidental disability offsets
- ◆ Servais v. Ocean Wholesale (whether payment for an employment separation agreement can be deemed a workers' compensation payment)
- ◆ Pilone v. County of Middlesex (off premises discussion between attorneys at time of injury held not compensable)
- ◆ S2253 lowering costs medical providers can charge for copies of records
