About the Young Lawyers Division

The NJSBA Young Lawyers Division provides New Jersey's newest lawyers with an opportunity to network and to enhance their professional development. Open to attorneys who are younger than 36 or have practiced for less than 10 years, the Young Lawyers Division organizes and promotes activities, including continuing legal education seminars, that are of assistance to new lawyers in the practice of law and encourages pro bono and community service involvement by all new lawyers.

Demographic Information

NJSBA USE ONLY

To comply with federal laws on non-deductibility disclosure, NJSBA membership and section dues are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes, but may be deductible under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

The NJSBA estimates that 10.00% of each membership dues payment is not deductible as a business expense because of NJSBA's lobbying activities on behalf of its members.
